ISLAMIC CELEBRATIONS

Ramadan

Ramadan is the name of the ninth and holiest month on the lunar Islamic calendar with its duration being 29 or 30 days (depending on the sighting of the moon). During Ramadan, the Muslims are to fast. The Islamic fast is total abstinence from food, drinks, smoking, and sexual intercourse.

Eid Al Fitr

At the end of the month of Ramadan, a festival is held called the Eid al Fitr (literally the festival to mark the break of fasting). This festival is celebrated on the first day of the tenth month and lasts for three days. Family and friends gather for prayers and festive food.

Eid Al Adha

The Eid of Sacrifice is in remembrance of the sacrifice of Prophet Abraham in which he agreed to offer his son, Ismail as a sacrifice but was spared at the last moment by God. This is celebrated on the tenth day of the twelfth month.
